The Performers

Paulette Bellamy

Teacher, pianist, violinist, accompanist, composer and arranger - Paulette is a household name in the local music circuit who 'bursts forth' while performing. Her instrumental group 'Touch of Elegance' was named 'the best classical group' by the Jamaica Music Industry. She is also co-founder of the performing arts group 'ASHE' and enjoys sharing her musical talent.

Velia Ann Espeut

Starting her singing career at the early age of five, Velia has received several awards and a certificate of recognition for contribution to the music culture of her homeland – Trinidad and Tobago. Having performed with some of Jamaica's finest artists and accompanists, her accomplishments also extend to stage, screen and television.

Dean Fraser

Dean's artistic mastery of the saxophone his success as a vocalist proves that he is a total musician. In addition, his outstanding artistic talents and achievements, coupled with an unswerving dedication and drive, have made him a "legend" in the annals of Jamaica's rich musical heritage. He has contributed to over 1000 albums in the past 25 years.

Michael Harris

Michael has been involved with music from an early age at Vaz Prep. School and Wolmer's Boys' School, where in his final year, he directed the school choir. After studying at Berklee College of Music in Boston where he pursued Music Synthesis, Contemporary Writing and Production, he was lead male vocalist for the Holiday on Ice in Concert and has toured Europe extensively. Michael keeps busy with teaching, song-writing, recording and performing.

Karen Smith

Karen started her singing career at St. Hugh's High School. Endearing herself to Jamaica as "Our Songbird" she says "I was born to sing.... Music makes me come alive". She keeps very busy as cabaret artiste on the hotel circuit, and has also entertained in Las Vegas.

Jon Williams

Jon, whose multi-faceted musical talent keeps him constantly in demand, could easily be dubbed 'Mr. Versatility'. A talented musician, he is an accomplished pianist, composer, musical director and expert on the keyboard. Most of his public appearances are with his group 'Jon and Friends'.
